3   Technical Paper

In this assignment you will be required to select a paper that you will (1) write a summary of and (2) do a short presentation on. Requirements:

- This should be a technical, academic paper that analyzes data.

- Blog posts do not count, unless they are extremely technical.

- The paper should not be one that you have written.

- I recommend finding a paper in a domain in which you are familiar.

To complete this assignment you must, before next class:

- Email me a copy of the paper so that I can approve it.
